Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

21. May, 1884.

Sir;

As my health has become very much impaired by long continued application to my duties - having had no recreation for two or three years - it now seems to be absolutely necessary for me to ask for a leave of absence at the convenience.

There being no provision made by law to supply my place, other than by my resignation, I hereby respectfully tender the same, to take effect upon the appointment of a successor.

I would like if agreeable to leave the Mint at the close of business on the 24th inst.

Very respectfully and gratefully

L. R. Comfort Thwaite
